Greene County Board of Supervisors met at 8:30 a.m. in the courthouse boardroom with all supervisors present: Bardole, Burkett, Contner, Muir, Rudolph.

Motion by Contner, second by Rudolph to approve the agenda. Motion carried unanimously. Motion by Burkett, second by Bardole to approve the minutes of February 13, 2017 and February 14, 2017. Motion carried unanimously.

Supervisor Pete Bardole reported attending a meeting of the GCDC executive committee and reminded the board of their invitation to attend one of two Community Development meetings (led by Zachary Mannheimer) scheduled for February 23rd and 28th. Supervisor Dawn Rudolph discussed the city of Scranton's interest in three properties owned by the county within Scranton.

Engineer Wade Weiss reviewed a report from the legislature covering structurally deficient bridges in Iowa counties (FY16). Weiss reported that Greene County is in good shape showing few bridge numbers on that list. Weiss noted that he will be providing the board with his five year construction plan proposal next month. He also shared information about the purchase of a Walk 'n' Roll packer roller planned to be purchased from his current year budget.

The board was presented with a mortgage release document for approval. The loan was part of the Greene County Down Payment Assistance Program administered by Region XII. Motion by Rudolph, second by Burkett to approve the mortgage release document. Motion carried unanimously.

The board reviewed budget documents including possible levy rates to be used and estimated fund balances after inclusion of all estimated revenues and expenditures. The board offered some changes and reductions to the rural portion of the sheriff's budget which included moving $40,000 for estimated vehicle equipment to the LOSST fund to help with the rural levy. The board expects to finish the budget for publication at a final Thursday meeting next week. That is expected to be the board's only meeting next week.

Chair Muir adjourned the meeting at 10:15 a.m.
